Ontario Cabinetmaking.

The subject of the reconstruction or-as some will have it, recreation of the Ontario Cabinet, rendered necessary by the retirement of two of its principal members, is occupying a good deal of attention and forms the subject of a very lively newspaper controversy. The render will scarcely need to be reminded that Costigan's Bill of last session is the cause of the enforced retirement of these two notable Grits. The Toronto "Mail," no mean authority, has an article upon the subject, wherein it reveals the little game of Messrs. Blake and Mackenzie, so completely spoiled by Costigan's Bill. It may be recollected that, although the constitution appears to have contemplated only five seats in the Cabinet, Mr Blake occupied a sixth seat without a portfolio. People marveled at his audacity in unceremoniously creating a seat for himself, and were puzzled at his seeming disinterestedness in filling it without fee or reward. But the theory of the "Mail" fully explains all. After organizing and consolidating the Cabinet of which he was a mere outrigger, a sort of outer-court member, Mr. Blake was to give up the helm of the Provincial ship to his first mate, Alexander of Lambton, and push his fortunes in the House of Commons, as the leader of the Opposition or of the Government, according as the fates might determine. By thus occupying a position unknown to the constitution and wholly unnecessary to the working of the ship, he could, at the right moment, slip over the side, and leave in one of the ship's boats without in the least disturbing the machinery. By this means three objects were hoped to be attained: A Grit Ministry in Ontario would control the revenues and wield a potent influence, reflexly strengthening the party in the Federal Councils. The vexed question of leadership in the House of Commons would be amicably set at rest. By his prominent connection with Cabinet-making in Ontario, Mr. Blake would secure a certain amount of prestige which might help him in the Dominion Parliament. The scheme was doubtless cunningly devised; but we are told that "The best laid schemes of men and mice,

Gang aft aglee."

And so it fell out in this instance. Costigan's naughty Bill spoiled all; and the whole thing has ended, it is said, in a jolly row. Mr. Blake went to Europe, ostensibly in search of health, but in reality, it is said, in search of peace; while Mr. Mackenzie resolves again to contend for his right to lead in the House of Commons. That section of the press which is opposed to these men animadverts with considerable severity upon the shuffling, doubledealing game which has thus been played for selfish, party purposes; and what was expected to bring glory and political advantage threatens to result very differently. Leaving these two would-be Premiers to settle their own dispute, we turn to the disorganized mess they leave at Toronto. The position taken by the Union press is that the Ontario Cabinet becomes practically defunct on the withdrawal of Messrs Blake and Mackenzie, and that it will remain for the Lieutenant-Governor to call upon whomsoever it pleaseth him to form a new one; and Mr. Scott, the Conservative member of the old Cabinet, is suggested as a fitting choice. The Grit press, on the other hand, contends that it is the prerogative of the retiring Premier to say who shall be his immediate successor, and it is intimated that the mantle should fall on Mr. McKellar, a member of the present Cabinet; or upon Mr. Wood, the "Judas" of the former Cabinet. But, meanwhile, a dark cloud appears to hang over the former candidate. He is, we sincerely regret to see, boldly accused in the public press of having obtained a loan of ten thousand dollars from an English philanthropist, for a charitable purpose, which sum he neither repaid nor applied to the purpose for which it was advanced,—or, as a Toronto contemporary puts it, "in the words of every-day life and common law, he is charged with obtaining money under false pretenses." For the reputation of Ontario and its public men, as well as for the sake of Mr McKellar himself, we would exceedingly regret to learn that this serious accusation is not susceptible of a satisfactory explanation; and yet the subject of the charge is as strangely reticent as those making it are singularly bold. Of one thing there can be little doubt. Until Mr. McKellar shall have purged his reputation of the blot thus cast upon it, he would not be acceptable to Ontario as a Cabinet Minister, much less as Premier. How much better does Mr. Wood stand before the public? The part of "Judas" is not a very popular one to act before an Ontario audience. It would seem that the elimination of the two leading and, unquestionably, most able Grits from the Cabinet is likely to leave the party in a somewhat demoralized condition, and it will be interesting to watch the process of recreation.

What Will It Cost?

The cost of the Canadian Pacific Railway has been variously estimated at from one hundred millions all the way up to two hundred millions; and we believe one ultra Grit even ventured to put it as high as three hundred millions. In a recent numb o Hamilton "Spectator" we find a very able article upon the su ject, which concluded in these words:—"We believe the Canadian Pacific Railway will not cost, at the outside, more than $20,000 a mile its entire length." Our contemporary does not ask to be believed on its mere naked assertion; but it well sustains that assertion with argument and fact. Referring to the wild statements put forward by the Grits in regard to the cost of the work, it says:

"'Now mark how plain a tale shall put you down.' The actual building of the Union Pacific cost $25,000 a mile. The Canadian Pacific will be 2,700 miles in length, and if it costs at the same rate the country must pay $67,500,000 for it. But then this $25,000 a mile was in currency, and gold was at an average premium of fifty per cent. during the construction of the road, while labor was higher and all material was higher than with us except in the one item of iron. This is very high just now; but it does not follow that it will remain so. High prices stimulate production: and we hope to see every pound of the iron for the Pacific Railway dug from Canadian mines and manufactured in Canadian shops by Canadian artisans. However that may be, if the Union Pacific cost but $25,000 a mile, it would be a very liberal estimate to say that the Canadian Pacific will cost $20,000; and if it cost that the total will amount to fifty-four millions, instead of the enormous sums so freely talked about by the Opposition."

If this estimate be correct, and we must confess it looks correct, the cost of the railway will only be about one-half of what its friends reckoned it at, and about one-fourth of what its enemies put it at. If this estimate be anything near correct, who can possibly doubt the readiness of capital to undertake the work upon the, as it would now appear, too favorable terms proposed by the Dominion Government? Fifty million acres of land and thirty millions of gold ought surely to produce a road worth fifty-four millions. It is stated that American companies have been enabled to realize at the average rate of ten dollars an acre for their land. Fifty million acres at ten dollars an acre would represent five hundred millions of dollars. There is not an American railway along whose route the land promised to be of greater value than that through which the Canadian Pacific Railway will pass. It will run through the centre of what has very properly been designated the "Fertile Belt," and what even American writers have alluded to as "The Garden of North America,"—what Horace Greeley himself called "The Granery of America." There can be no manner of doubt that whatever company may be enabled to secure the contract upon the terms propounded by the Canadian Government and sanctioned by Parliament will realize an enormous profit from it.

The Prize for the Best Made Pair of Boots.

EDITOR COLONIST;—I have read Mr Mansell's card in your issue to-day. It is true, as he says, that bottoming a pair of boots is not MAKING them; but I will explain that in publishing my challenge I did not refer to the work on other parts of a boot because in the specimen exhibited by Mr Mansell his shop had shown its utter incapacity to cut a boot!

I now renew my challenge, and to cover Mr Mansell's objection I will compete with him or any workman in his employ in making a pair of boots—cutting, bottoming and uppers—from first to last.

One of the Judges at the Show was not a Shoemaker; another was Mr Mansell's own foreman; and as soon as I heard the name of the third—Mr Maynard—I knew that I was SOLD.

The Best-made Pair of Boots.

EDITOR COLONIST;—A card in your issue of the 13th inst., signed W. Palmer, on the award made at the late Agricultural Exhibition, for the best made pair of Boots, calls for a few remarks from the undersigned.

I regret the tone, also, the reflections, which smack rather of insult cast on the two gentlemen acting in conjunction with Mr. Webster as judges of boots and shoes (Mr. Webster, I am assured, would not have acted had there been a third person present appointed to act as judge). And I am informed Mr. Webster had the good sense to leave the decision on the best pair of boots entirely to the two judges, who, I believe, acted entirely on their own judgment he (Mr. W.) only concurring in the unanimous award.

I would inform Mr. Palmer, if he is not aware of it, that bottoming does not constitute the making of a pair of boots.

With regard to his challenge, fortunately I have something else to do, besides making up prize boots, and am quite satisfied to leave the public to judge who makes the best boots.

I shall not enter any further into newspaper controversy.

The Award for the Best-made Pair of Boots.

A CARD.

EDITOR COLONIST—As I consider that I was most unjustly deprived of the Prize for the best-made Pair of Boots at the late Show, I now challenge any man in Mr Mansell's shop to bottom a pair of boots with me for any sum from $25 to $100—the loser to divide the amount he may stake equally between the Royal Hospital and the Orphan Asylum. The judges to be entirely disinterested, and not employed in either of the shops.

To demonstrate the unfairness of the late decision I would add that one of the judges was Mr Mansell's foreman. Perhaps he passed upon his own work!

An Unprejudiced Opinion.

Charles A. Sumner, an American gentleman, recently lectured at San Francisco before a large audience, his subject being a tour through Canada and the Eastern States. In the course of his remarks Mr. Sumner gave a graphic description of his visit to the Dominion a little over a year ago, from which railroad jaunt he stated he derived "much unalloyed happiness," and during which "he was surprised by so many glorious pictures of river, lake and land." Mr. Sumner stated that "he felt bound by gratitude and the obligation of an unfettered vow," to testify somewhere and somehow the pleasure and profit he had derived from his visit to our Canadian neighbors. After a pleasant and fast railway journey, described with life and humor, both as to scenery and fellow passengers, Mr. Sumner arrived on the Canadian line, and proceeded to give full descriptions of Victoria bridge, Montreal and Quebec, which evidently interested his audience. The lecturer made some hints at the railway monopoly, of which the following are the principal: Speaking of a citizen of Montreal who had made an immense fortune in the Grand Trunk Railroad enterprise, Mr. Sumner stated that he was held in esteem by the people on account of the sagacity and perseverence he manifested in pushing his mammoth railroad undertaking. A man who had been largely instrumental in building 2,000 miles of railway which vastly contributed to build up a multitude of mercantile enterprises in the principal cities of the Dominion, and who had never manifested any disposition to corner the coal-oil markets in the Canadas, or clear up all margins of private profits by railroad subsidies. While gazing at the fair country dwelling of this great man, the lecturer's mind traveled across the continent; he said: "I thought how another dwelling looked in a city of impositions and extortions on the banks of the Sacramento; and I was glad to reach the summit of the mountain and looked down upon that river city which did not beget and foster, and probably would not socially or politically tolerate, a character precisely opposite to the one I was contemplating, working out a characteristic history under similar circumstances." Mr. Sumner also said, when speaking of William Molson, one of the leading bankers of Montreal: "On subsequent inquiry, I ascertained that he was never accused or suspected of cornering anybody in gold, stocks, or cereals, or indulging in any illegitimate speculations; that he never kept a serafilio; that he never claimed to be an orphan after he had become wealthy; that he never proposed in any manner to injure his own city by establishing a rival, and thus blackmailing the inhabitants out of a few millions of extra taxes," and the lecturer added significantly, "their appears to be some remarkable railroad men and bankers up at Montreal!" Mr. Sumner stated at the end of his discourse that at some future time he would resume the subject, and take up his journey from Quebec. He closed amid much applause.

COAL IN LONDON.—It is a fact worth recording, remarks the London "Times," that the charge for coal in the metropolis is now 33 per cent. higher than it has been during any period within the last 40 years. In 1832 the city dues on coal were reduced from 6s. to the present rate of 1s. 1d. per ton. In that year the average price of the best coal was 21s. 11d. per ton, the consumption being 2,130,000 tons. In 1838 the price of the best coal had increased to 24s. 6d. per ton, the highest point reached during a period of 40 years until the present time. The carriage of coal by railway began in 1845, in which year the London and North-western Company carried 8,377 tons to the metropolis, the price being at that time 19s. 2d. per ton, while in the following year it fell to 17s. 11d. The lowest price in any year since 1831 was in 1851, when the average price of the best coal was 16s. 1d. per ton, or about half of what it is now. In 1862 the price was 17s. 7d. per ton, since which the rate has oscillated between 18s. and 24s. per ton. The consumption of coal in London in 1852 was 3,742,000 tons; in 1862, it had increased to 4,967,340 tons, and is now at the rate of fully seven million tons a year.

WATERPROOF.---We don't believe it---do you? The following paragraph we take from the Hawaiian "Gazette" of late date: "On Wednesday last a boat with eleven persons on board, and when about half way across the channel towards the lower end of Lanai, the boat was capsized and lost. The passengers swam for Lanai, and after being in the water for about twelve hours, nine of them reached the land; two, an old man and woman, were drowned---their names were Kapu and Kaaiawawa. Of the survivors three were young children, who were saved by being lashed to oars and thus conveyed to land.

BIRDS AND INSECTS.—When the bird is no longer present to arrest the propagation of the insect the equilibrium is destroyed; the insect multiplies, devours the harvests and leads the way to famine. The value of nutritive substances destroyed by insects foots up to millions; it equals three times the amount of the land tax. In view of all this we organize for the destruction—of insects?—no, for that of the birds. Man creates misfortunes for the sake of repairing them. He breaks up the nests and kills the birds in order to raise myriads of caterpillars.

THE British ship Aculoo, 1,550 tons register, 189 days from Liverpool for San Francisco, with a general cargo, has been totally wrecked 20 miles south of the Golden Gate. Thick fog was the cause of the disaster.

ECCLESIASTICAL.---The Wesleyan Methodist body of Ottawa are about to erect a magnificent church, the site for which they have secured on the corner of Cumberland and Sussex streets.

Seattle Morals.

Somebody professing to be a woman—if a woman she must, indeed, be a strong minded one—is writing very drastic articles in the Seattle "Dispatch" about a disreputable establishment said to exist in that town. If one-half that "J. L. B." writes be true, the moral atmosphere of one of the most important communities on Puget Sound is far from pure. Here is a sample of this strong-minded woman's writing:—

"The classic inebriate who has sacrificed to his unhallowed appetites all of manhood but the fitful recollections of an early education, gathers up this remnant of a squandered patrimony and sells it to the keeper of a squaw brothel to defend his nefarious traffic, as the drunkard would sell his wife's last keep-sake or his baby's bauble to feed the flames of perdition which play upon its vitals. * * * * Has the brave old party, to which I clung with such faith and hope through the dark period of the war, come to this, and its necessities demand a temporizing policy with keepers of bothels and professional gamblers? Think you that the women, were they entrusted with the sacred suffrage, would thus barter it for party success? * * * * * But women must not protest, must not petition, but must drop their veils and pass on when they are jostled upon the public walks by public prostitutes; they must exhibit no consciousness when they are brought in contact with the keeper of a squaw brothel in the lecture room, upon the steamers or in public carriages; they must keep silent when they see the fairest portion of the city, upon the most public thoroughfares to the country, surrendered to purposes the very thought of which brings the blush of shame to the face of every decent citizen; they must stand idly by and make no sign, when under their very eyes and within their hearing are the sights and sounds of revelry calculated to lure and attract their unthinking boys to a den of perdition which destroys both body and soul. Hush! your father, your husband, or your brother is a candidate for office! The party is in danger! It has its candidates for office who are pledged to see that no harm befals it from the outraged laws, which it has so long put at defiance through corrupt officials! Its keeper musters the blear-eyed denizens of his den and retainers by the score to control primaries and hold the balance of power in party elections! It supports a newspaper, which will bespatter you with ribaldry if you say a word!"

Police Court.

James Newman, charged with supplying liquor to Indians, was fined $250 to be levied by distress, in default of payment, 12 months' imprisonment.

A man of unsound mind claimed the protection of the Government Hotel, which was granted till Monday next.

Thomas Brown, on remand on suspicion of stealing a watch, was discharged.

SWEEPING.---The Toronto "Mail," in the course of a leading article, says, "Not a single public man can be found in New Brunswick or Nova Scotia, in Manitoba or British Columbia, at the present moment, prepared to come forward and declare that he sympathizes heartily and directly with the Grit Faction." Sweeping as the assertion is, we are not sure but it is perfectly true.

JOHN WALTER, M. P., proprietor of the London "Times," late gave a grand spread to his literary and mechanical staff (over 300 in number) at his magnificent residence, Bearwood Hall, in Berkshire. The host occupied the chair, and a "large number" of speeches were made, of course.

DESTRUCTIVE THUNDERSTORM.—A Quebec (City) dispatch of Sept. 26th says: "During the recent heavy thunderstorm, Brown's extensive rope factory was struck by lightning and entirely consumed. A little girl in the neighborhood was also struck and killed. A cow was killed on the Charlesburg road, and the telegraph poles at Loretto were shivered into pieces."

FOR NEW WESTMINSTER.—The steamer Enterprise in charge of Capt. McKinnon, left at 9 a. m. yesterday for New Westminster with a small amount of freight and a large Mail, Among the passengers were Dr. Carrall, and Messrs. B. P. Griffin and Agassiz.

THEY have got a terrible sensation in New Zealand. The police have captured a systematic poisoner, who has got rid of three husbands and any number of children by means of poisonous drugs. The prisoner is a something in the shape of a woman.

HO! YE IDLE ONES!!—The Vancouver Coal Mining Company want miners. Communication with Nanaimo three or four times a week. Passage cheap. Steady work till the Railway is started next Spring.

TWO NEW CASES.—A dispatch from Mayor Cunningham, of New Westminster, to Mayor Lewis, yesterday, reports two new cases of small-pox at that place—one a white child and the other an Indian woman.

THE PEWS have been placed in Christ Church Cathedral; but the edifice will not be open till after the arrival of the new organ and the peal of bells.

THE SENATORS.—It is reported that there will shortly be a vacancy in the Senatorial Representation of this Province by the resignation of one of the triumvirate.

BRICKS.---Billings & Mason of Olympia have made over one million bricks this year. These bricks have the reputation of being very good.

FROM THE SOUND.—The steamer Isabel arrived from Port Townsend at 11:30 a. m. yesterday with a few passengers.

ON THE SICK LIST.—We are sorry to see that Capt. Swanson is again so indisposed as to be unable to do his duty.

THE cool nor'-wester of last evening dissipated the fog-banks which had enveloped the city and Straits for several days.

Governor Musgrave at the Cape.

We take the following from the "Natal Mercury:"—"The great event of the past month has been the reception of His Excellency the Lieut-Governor Musgrave, C. M. G., which passed off with complete satisfaction and success. His Excellency, Mrs. Musgrave, and suite, arrived in the R. M. S. Natal on the 13th of July, but did not land until the morning of the 15th, when they met with a very hearty reception both at the landing place and in town. Addresses were presented by the Mayor and Town Council, Chamber of Commerce and the Immigrants' Aid Office, and very graceful replies given. A well-attended levee and reception were held. There was a drive round the suburbs as far as the precincts of Overport. A dinner, attended by most of the chief functionaries and leading men of the town and neighborhood, was held, and a large concourse of townsfolk escorted His Excellency out of town on his departure, two days after arrival, for Maritzburg. The Legislative Council has been further prorogued to the 15th Aug;. an early session is expected."

THEATRICAL.—A theatrical company from San Francisco, and a minstrel troupe from Portland, are on their way here.

THE barkentine Amelia, from San Francisco, bound for Moody, Dietz & Nelson's Mill, passed up yesterday.

The Educational System.

The St. John N. B. "Telegraph" alludes to our system of Education thus:—

We do not remember to have seen any special notice in the press of the New School Act which came into force in the Province of British Columbia, on the 1st April last. It is desirable, however, that our people should be kept fully informed as to the progress made in providing for the education of the youth of the country in all parts of our young Dominion. Hence we subjoin a few particulars:

The new Act provides for a Board of Education of six members; a Superintendent of Education (who is Chairman of the Board) at an annual salary of $2,000 and traveling expenses; the division of the Province into School Districts; the use of a uniform series of text books prescribed by the Board of Education; the uniform examination and licensing of three grades of teachers; the holding of annual school meetings early is January of each year; the election of three Trustees for each district; and all other provisions necessary to secure the privileges of education to all the children of the province, without distinction of race or creed. The 25th section of the Act provides that—

"All public schools established under the provisions of this Act, shall be conducted upon strictly non-sectarian principles. The highest morality shall be inculcated, but no religious dogmas or creed shall be taught."

Thus, throughout the Dominion, throughout this vast continent, the work of educating the people—all the people—is the grand aim of statesmen and educationalists. We, in New Brunswick, must shoulder with willing hearts every burden necessary to rear a thoroughly good system of free schools. Our boys and girls must be fully equipped to meet their fellows of each of the Provinces and adjoining States, when they are called to the front in the battle of life. We have talent and energy enough, only let us see that we give our people fair play. Our system of schools, which we may improve, but not destroy, is worthy of the united suport of the people; and its benefits and blessings, open to all, are essential to our advancement and progress as a Province. Some of our contempories are inclined to make merry over the fact that Sir Francis Hincks has been elected to represent a Vancouver constituency of mixed nationality. Let us take care that the young sister province on the Pacific does not lead New Brunswick in education.

ASHES AS A CATTLE FEED.—One of our substantial subscribers, in a recent conversation gave his experience in training neat stock affected with the habit of eating wood, chewing bones, &c. His cattle were one spring affected this way; they became thin in flesh, refused to eat hay, and presented a sickly appearance. He had no impression that their food lacked the constituents for making bone, but his neighbors used bone meal without noticing any good results whatever. At last he put about four bushels of leached ashes in his barnyard, and threw out to them about a shovelful each day. They all ate as if with evident relish. After turning them out to pasture, he put one peck of dry ashes per week on the ground in the pasture. They ate all up, and gnawed of the grass where it had been lying. The cattle began to improve, gaining flesh and looking better than they had done for several years. He says this morbid appearance was unnoticed years ago, from the fact that the ground was new and ashy from the burning of the woods and land clearings. Latterly he gives one quart of ashes mixed with the same quantity of salt to twelve head of cattle, about once a week.—Live Stock Journal.

THE undersigned begs to inform his friends and the public that he has just received, ex-Prince Alfred, a fine assortment of fashionable clothing—in addition to his stock.—DAVID GREEN, Government street.

THE "COLONIST'S" SPECIAL DISPATCHES.

Eastern States.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 16,—At Grand Tower, Illinois, on Monday, Mike Connor, in shaking hands with Jas. O'Vail, hurt a bone in the latter's hand, whereupon O'Vail stabbed and killed him.

KEOKUK, Oct. 16.—The wholesale house of C. Arker & Co., was consumed by fire to-day. It was subsequently discovered that the safe had been blown open and robbed. It was evidently the work of burglars.

SAVANNAH, Oct. 16.—Under Ku Klux laws, J. C. Carrol, of Boston, Georgia, is held in the sum of $50,000, charged with going disguised with a dozen others to the house of a neighbor, named James Hill and killing a colored man and unmercifully beating Hill.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—St. Andrew's Episcopalian Church, Richmond, Staten Island, was burned. Loss $20,000.

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—It is now ascertained that 10 persons were lost by the sinking of the propeller LaBelle in Lake Michigan on Monday.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Caleb Cushing arrived yesterday. He expresses himself satisfied with the award of the Arbitration Board. As to the English claims for damage to the property of British subjects in this country balancing the Alabama claims, he says such claims will not reach two millions. Cushing did not go to England, but to France, and the general opinion appeared to be that the U. S. has gained a great victory. The deliberations were secret, simply because they did not want to have the discussions which were of a nature similar to those of any judicial tribunal broken into by anybody.

A Washington special says: It is reported that Att'y-General Williams intends to retire from the Cabinet after the election, and is to be succeeded by Gen. Bristow, of Kentucky, present Solicitor-General. In such event it is thought Williams will be asked to serve on the Commission of Adjudication of Alabama Claims that Congress is expected to establish.

Europe.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—The London "Telegraph" of the 5th says, that a late case of wholesale poisoning has been the subject of inquiry at West Auckland. Mary Ann Colton has been accused of causing the death of her husband, 3 children and a lodger, within a comparatively limited time. It is suspected that the accused is a systematic poisoner and that in the course of her career no less than 19 persons have been disposed of, 15 children, 3 husbands and 1 lodger.

A dispatch announces that the railway between Yokohama and Yeddo, Japan, has been formally opened by the Mikado.

Mail advices from Alsace and Lorraine represent the exodus will almost wholly depopulate those countries. Large numbers left taking no more than parcels with them. Numbers left their hearthstones with their clothes hung on a stick, wife carrying the youngest child, rest trudging behind. In Metz there are only 17 youths remaining, all unfit for service. It is alleged that 195,000 people left Metz during the last fortnight, reducing the population to 10,000 exclusive of 25,000 German troops who keep watch and ward over them. In Havre the number choosing French nationality is 120,000. These facts evidently make impression on the Germans.

BRUSSELS, Oct. 17—A Paris Communist, who surrendered to the authorities here, confesses himself to have been an accomplice of Traupman, who murdered a whole family near Paris.

LONDON, Oct. 17—A passenger train on the Eastern Railroad rain off the track near Chelmsford. The cars were precipitated down the embankment and dashed to pieces. No particulars as to the number of killed and wounded have yet been received.

California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17—The Woman Suffragists—some 150—had a meeting last night and endorsed the present President of the U. S.

The British ship Aculoo, 189 days from Liverpool, went ashore 20 miles south of the Heads and is a total loss. She is loaded with a general cargo of merchandise and was chartered to load here with wheat. As the weather was thick outside all day it prevented the captain from getting his bearings.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18—There are 20 vessels from Eastern domestic ports for this port that have been out over 110 and 13 from European ports.

Very little more has been learned from the wreck of the British ship Aculoo which lies 20 miles from this city. Her cargo is valued at $150,000, among which are 200,000 grain sacks and 150 tons pig iron. The ship was 1550 tons register. The last heard of her crew was that they were at sea in boats without water or food and unable to effect a landing in the fog. The Captain and three men in a small boat got ashore near Seal Rock House last night. The ship struck on a reef, sprung a leak and soon filled and sunk.

Most of the Northern Pacific Railroad party left for their Eastern homes this morning.

Nevada.

VIRGINIA, Oct. 17—This morning as the passenger train was coming from Reno the American flat tunnel was discovered to be on fire. The engineer, not being able to stop, put on all steam and ran through the burning timbers without damage to the train. The engineer returned to the tunnel with the Gold Hill Fire Department. The fire had made such progress that it had reached within 100 feet of the south end—having commenced at the north end—and by this time the timbers had burned out and the tunnel had caved in a number of places so as to effectually stop all trains. About 100 feet on the south end will be saved.

Montana.

HELENA, Oct. 17—Jas. L. Kellogh was shot dead last night near Gamble City, Montana, by John N. Tinsloy in a quarrel about a farm.

The stage going sonth was stopped about 8 o'clock last night, three miles north of Pleasant Valley, by two road-agents. Seven thousand dollars was taken from the passengers. No Express treasure was on board.

WE wonder what induces David Green the Clothier, of Government street, to advertise, as everyone is aware that he keeps the best fashionable made clothing store north of San Francisco.

A SUBSOIL PLOW.—The benefits to be derived from subsoiling are so great and varied, that no farmer should hesitate to provide himself with a subsoil plow, and use it on every possible occasion. The uses for such an implement are many. One horse can draw in when at the depth of five or six inches only is taken which is sufficient for a commencement. A field may be subsoiled wholly by taking furrows one foot apart, and two acres a day may be gone over. If run in the rows in which corn, potatoes, turnips, or beans are to be planted, and across in the check row, great benefit will be derived. Used constantly in these ways, the farm will soon be completely gone over, and the soil loosened to a depth of twelve or fifteen inches. In a few years this loosening subsoil will become mellowed and may gradually be brought to the top and mixed with the surface soil, and all the advantage of deep plowing be gained without any of the evil effects which are so often experienced when the raw subsoil is suddenly brought up.

Card of Thanks to Dr. Chong.

AFTER BEING TREATED FIVE MONTHS by a white doctor, and spending nearly $300, I was worse than when I first went to him. I had quite despaired of being relieved when I read Dr. Chong's Card in THE COLONIST. I placed myself under his care and in NINE DAYS I was a well man. I write this card to discharge a debt of gratitude I owe to Dr Chong whose charges, I may also say, were reasonable. My complaint was neuralgia. WILLIAM McCORMICK.

FOR DYSENTERY, CHOLERA, AGUE, COUGHS COLDS, &c.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
(Ex Army Med Staff)

CHLORODYNE.

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION—Vice-Chancellor Sir W P Wood stated that Dr. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the inventor of CHLORODYNE: that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent Hospital Physicians of London stated that Dr J Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne: that they prescribe it largely and mean no other than Dr Browne's—See Times, July 13, 1864.

The Public therefore are cautioned against using any other than

DR J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This INVALUABLE REMEDY produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the nervous system, restores the deranged functions and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvelous good effects and wonderful cures while medical men extol its virtues most extensively using it in great quantities in the following diseases:—

Diseases in which it is found eminently useful—Cholera, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Colics, Coughs, Asthma, Cramp Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Cough, Hysteria, &c.

EXTRACTS FROM MEDICAL OPINIONS.

The Right Hon Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J T Davenport that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne.—See Lancet Dec 31, 1864.

From A. Montgomery, Esq., late inspector of Hospitals, Bombay: Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy for Neuralgia, Asthma and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when other medicines had failed.

Dr Lowe, Medical Missionary in India reports [Dec 1865] that in nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr Collis Browne's Chlorodyne was administered the patient recovered.

Extract from Medical Times, Jan 10, 1866—Chlorodyne is prescribed by scores of orthodox remedical practitioners. Of course it would not thus be singularly popular did it not supply a want and fill a place.

Extract from the general Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.—So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases.

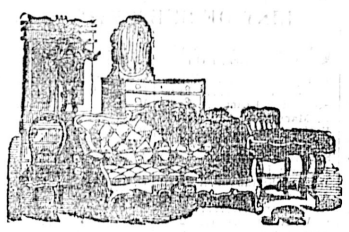

Beware of spurious and dangerous compounds sold as CHLORODYNE from which frequent fatal results have followed.

See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal, Aug 1, 1869, which states that Dr J. Collis Browne was the inventor of Chlorodyne: that it is always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered.

CAUTION—None genuine without the words "Dr J Collis Browne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle
